Visitors- Our Community

We had multiple visitors this week at Natural Journey. We are so lucky to have special people who want to join in our community. Grampy and Grammie came to join us for some free play and lunch.

Grampy and Grammie always get lots of requests to read books and sit on their lap. This week the book requests mostly came from our new batch of library books. On Wednesday, Sarah and Ian also came to play.

Michigan Early Childhood Standards of Quality for Infant and Toddler Programs: Strand B: Belonging, Goal 4: Infants and toddlers experience environments where positive connections among their families, the program, and the children are affirmed. c. The ability to interact with an increasing number of significant people in their lives, beyond their families and primary caregivers.
